

Competition Rules

1. The quiz is open to members and friends of the German Chamber. Employees of the Chamber, their family members or anyone else connected in any way with the competition or helping to set up the competition shall not be permitted to enter the competition. In order to enter the quiz each contestant has to supply their details.
2. Only one submission of each set of questions per contestant is permitted.
3. Once a new set of questions is online, or for the final set of questions once the contest period is over, no more submissions of answers will be accepted.
4. Contest period is between Wednesday, 1 February 2017 and Thursday, 30 November 2017.
5. During this period, the first and last name as well as the company of each monthly draw-winner will be published on our website. However, no other internal information related to the competition will be made available.
6. Submitted answers will be collected by the Chamber. Out of submissions one participant from those who have answered the most questions correctly will be drawn each month. Those ten drawn participants will then enter a final draw in December to win one of our listed prizes.
7. It is a condition of entry that all monthly draw winners consent to their first and last name along with their company name to be published on the Chamber website. Winners may be required to take part in or co-operate with post-event publicity.
8. No responsibility is accepted for inaccurate prize details supplied by sponsors or the Chamber.
9. In the event of unforeseen circumstances, the German-Australian Chamber reserves the right to alter, amend or foreclose the competition without prior notice. Where the German Chamber does so, it will publish such foreclosure, amendment or alteration on the website.
10. The German Chamber reserves the right to amend these rules at any time.
