Why become a member of the German–Australian Chamber of Industry and Commerce?

Membership will unlock these opportunities for you:

Global Access

network of 140 German chambers (AHKs) in 92 countries. We are one of the most highly regarded international chamber organisations.

With over 40 years of experience, we deliver a comprehensive platform for our 400+ Member companies to discuss and solve issues relevant to their business interests. We are the first stop for new companies entering the Australian market and welcome numerous political and business delegations every year. Our bilateral network of contacts gives each company access to the highest levels of government and industry. We act as a door-opener for you.

The German–Australian Chamber of Industry and Commerce (GACIC) is the official representative of German industry and trade in Australia.

Headquartered in Berlin, we belong to a trusted

Connections

around the country per year, we offer value for everyone across three event categories:

The German–Australian Chamber offers a wide range of events, which may be industry-specific or of general interest. With over 50 events

- VIP events primarily for our Premium Partners and Executive Members;
- informative and social events; and
- events organised by member companies or partner organisations and supported by the Chamber.

Our range of speakers include outstanding industry experts, top-tier politicians from both federal and state parliaments, leading scientists and other inspiring and influential personalities, who will provide you with invaluable and current industry insights and trends. Above all, our events are designed to bring the German–Australian business community together, in turn fostering new relationships and ultimately generating revenue for your organisation.

Engagement

on investment, with tangible benefits in the form of networking and exclusive event invitations. GACIC events give the chance to meet potential new business contacts at a variety of informal, formal and content-based functions.

Beyond business, our Policy team provides the support you need in engaging with the key decision-makers in Australian and German politics. The more you engage with GACIC and its extensive member base, the more you will benefit from your membership.

Reliable Support

focusing and streamlining your business to achieve maximum results.

The Membership Team (based in Melbourne and Sydney) is dedicated to creating a positive, productive experience for all GACIC members. They are always available for enquiries, to take your feedback and will help you to connect with other Chamber members.

Strategic Branding

centre across a number of print and online publications, including our quarterly German-Australian Business News magazine and monthly Member Company Update e-newsletter. Furthermore you can take advantage of our social media platforms to expand your reach.

We offer numerous sponsorship opportunities, the possibility to advertise online, an exclusive Member4Members offer page, and various social media channels to promote your business. As a member of the German-Australian network, you have access to a relevant, engaged audience all year round.

Whether you are a sales office distributing a German brand in Australia or a corporation with multiple branches, we have a flexible membership option to suit you. We deliver a great return
